Miles Knight: The Avenger is Book IV in the American Knights Series. The 5th Great Grandfather of author Lance Knight continues to reveal the trials, joys, emotions and employment of the vengeance that drives him and his Blackguard, Unit 7 to avenge the evils inflicted on them, their dear Indian friends and other Patriots during the American Revolution. The story also reveals the unimaginable horrors of American military and civilian prisoners of war on British prison ships, also called Hell Ships, where Miles Knight's childhood friend, a double agent spy for the Continental Army is being held. Men are dying by the thousands in these Hell Ships and Miles and his Blackguard Special Operations and Tactics troops go to rescue Miles friend and many others. Enemy Cherokee Indians, working for the British have attacked a peace loving Shawnee village twice, killing almost all the people. Miles exacts revenge on the killer Indians on behalf of his Shawnee friends. The story also gives the reader a view into the ongoing romance and devotion of Miles and his...
