And Vote for the Best Man It is well known that the great American Party in this Commonwealth - the party which nominated Millard Fillmore for President, and Andrew J. Donelson for Vice President, of the United States have also nominated George William Gordon, of Boston, for the high and honorable office of Governor of Massachusetts. Who is George William Gordon? This question is asked by young men of the present day who are not familiar with the position lie formerly held in this community, and who, in consequence of his absence during a series of years from his native country; while exercising the duties of an important and responsible public trust, have forgotten the public services he once rendered, and the space he once filled among us, and also that he possesses qualifications of a nature eminently calculated to secure the confidence and support of the patriotic American citizens of old Massachusetts. Mr. Gordon was born in Exeter, New Hampshire. His father, Mr. John Gordon, was a thriving farmer of that town, honored and respected by his fellow-townsmen for his probity and worth. The first members of the Gordon family, in this country, were four brothers, who came over from Scotland and nearly two hundred years ago, three of whom settled in New England, and one in Virginia. The farm, in Exeter, on which is now visible the cellar of the first house erected by the Gordons in America, is...
