THE NECESSITY OF SIN AND ITS USES. I Said, if I might go back again To the very hour and place of my birth; Might have my life whatever I chose, And live it in any part of the earth; i Put perfect sunshine into my sky, Banish the shadows of sorrow and doubt; Have all my happiness multiplied, And all my suffering stricken out; If I could have known in the years now gone The best that a woman comes to know; Could have had whatever will make her blest, Or whatever she thinks will make her so; Have gained the highest and purest bliss That the bridal wreath and ring enclose; And chosen the one out of all the world That I might, or could, or would have chose; And if this had been, and I stood to-night By my children, lying asleep in their beds; And could count in my prayers, for a rosary, The shining row of their golden heads: Yea! I said, if a miracle such as this Could be wrought for me, at my bidding--still I would choose to hare my past as it is, And to let my future come as it will. I would not make the path I have trod More pleasant or even, more straight or wide; Nor change my course the breadth of a hair. This way or that, to either side. My past is mine, and I take it...
