

Buying Murder

By Nancy Lynn Jarvis

Good Read Mysteries. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 296 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.6in. x 0.7in. Murder gets personal when human remains are found in the beach cottage that real estate agents Regan McHenry and her husband, Tom Kiley, buy. The murder victim has been hidden away for sixteen years, and although the authorities quickly discover his identity, the trail to his killer is cold after so many years. Regan has sworn off playing amateur detective, but when it becomes clear the police have to focus on more pressing crimes, she has to break her promise. As her friend police ombudsman Dave Everett says, Your house, Regan, your murder. Welcome back to Santa Cruz, the community whose unofficial motto is Keep Santa Cruz Weird, for the twists and turns of the third book in the Regan McHenry Mystery Series. The murders are invented, but Nancy Lynn Jarvis uses real events and stories from her twenty plus years as a Realtor for background details, although, sometimes they are the parts of the books that seem like fiction. The series has been called smart and funny; perfect books to kick back with and have a good read. This item ships from multiple locations....
