CARMINA BRITANNIAE: A SELECTION OF POEMS AND BALLADS ILLUSTRATIVE OF ENGLISH HISTORY (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Carmina Britanniae: A Selection of Poems and Ballads Illustrative of English History It is no new plan, but it is a plan which has not yet been universally adopted by teachers of English history, to illustrate their lessons by the reading or recitation of poems on historical subjects. Such readings give a welcome variety to the lesson, and since men and events are here treated exclusively from the romantic and imaginative point of view, they form a useful antidote to the dry statements of the text-books into which are compressed the splendid annals of our past. For many reasons, histories for school use must necessarily be somewhat dull; to write accurately and soundly the story of two thousand years, in such a manner that the book may be both cheap and portable, is no easy matter, and much picturesque detail must inevitably be omitted. But it is the imperative duty of every teacher to see that these dry bones do not represent to children the glorious body of history; it is his duty to animate and vivify the tale by recalling the motives and passions that thrilled our ancestors, to remember that chronology is not history, and to seize one of the few opportunities afforded by the school curriculum to appeal to the human sympathies and moral judgment of his pupils.
