AUNT BETSEY, there s going to be a new Declaration of Independence. Bless and save us, what do you mean, child? And the startled old lady precipitated a pie into the oven with destructive haste. I mean that, being of age, I m going to take care of myself, and not be a burden any longer. Uncle wishes me out of the way; thinks I ought to go, and, sooner or later, will tell me so. I don t intend to wait for that, but, like the people in fairy tales, travel away into the world and seek my fortune. I know I can find it. Christie emphasized her speech by energetic demonstrations in the bread-trough, kneading the dough as if it was her destiny, and she was shaping it to suit herself; while Aunt Betsey stood listening, with uplifted pie-fork, and as much astonishment as her placid face was capable of expressing. As the girl paused, with a decided thump, the old lady exclaimed: What crazy idee you got into your head now? A very sane and sensible one that s got to be worked out, so please listen to it, ma am. I ve had it a good while, I ve thought it over thoroughly, and I m sure it s the right thing for me to do. I m old enough to take care of myself; and if I d been a boy, I should have been told to do it long ago. I hate to be dependent; and now there s no need of it, I can t bear it any longer. If you were poor, I wouldn t leave you; for I...
