Edward Everett Hale, offered the following prayer: For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Behold, I shew you a mystery, he writes. I make plain to you that that has been a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. Father, these who have known him best, these who have loved him, they come to thee to ask thy strength for weakness, for light in darkness, and that thou wilt interpret unto them the lessons of life and death. All of us, Father, who knew him to love him and to honor him, we are altogether, with those nearest to him in his home, in 5 the sorrows of this hour. Come near to us as only our Father can come near to us. Show us what it is to be the immortal children of an eternal God. Train us to new service and larger service when we go from world to world or from life to life, to be with thee in this infinite heaven of thine. Father, we pray for this nation, that she...
