LALITAMBA 2: AN UPLIFTING LITERARY EXPERIENCE

Lalitamba Inc, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 206 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Lalitamba was inspired by a pilgrimage through India. In 2004, we traveled from city to city, working to alleviate the suffering that comes from poverty, illness, and just plain loss of hope. In India, the Divine Mother is called Lalitamba. She is looked to as the supporter of the universe. Lalitamba is a collection of contemporary spiritual literature that inspires the reader to look beyond the troubles of daily life to the bigger picture of being. Sapphire, author of Push, now a major motion picture, shares a poem "Fairy Tale #1" about surviving incest. S. Churchills poem Zacchaeus Soup Kitchen is written from the point of view of a homeless man and describes the beauty of a woman who is not afraid to smile. Lorraine Tollivers poem 6a.m. Cold CIPHERING commands the reader to give up the sorrow of accumulation for the sun s great journey skyward. Lalitamba is about cutting through the illusions of death, fear, and desire to know truth. The collection opens with a short story, Los Milagros, by Dina Greenberg. In the story, a Mexican immigrant finds herself out of place in the American hospital where she is being treated for cancer. Ultimately, she comes to realize that this hospital where she lies, perhaps dying, is the same place where her youngest granddaughter was born. The story brings home the continuity of life, through the cycle of birth and death, as well as a rich cultural heritage that will be passed down through generations. The collection also features Gregory Colbert s cover photo of a child who appears to have wings. The image speaks to the innocence of our own hearts and suggests that we explore abilities we may not believe we...
