The future of the subject had a relation to current political questions which it would be out of place to allude to in this Society, but dealing only with its history, which was a legitimate subject of research, he, the President, felt that the experience of the past had not proved valueless to the Japanese, and that while Hideyoshi was not the only military leader who from motives of personal ambition had plunged his country into a disastrous war, he believed that when the next chapter of Japanese intercourse with Korea came to be written it would furnish a brighter record for this country than that which formed the subject of these papers. Mr. Chamberlain thought it worthy of notice that no mention was made in any of the authorities consulted by Mr. Aston of the supposititious invasion of Korea by the Empress Jing6 K6g6, an omission from which he (the speaker) was inclined to infer that the invasion in question--possibly also the very existence of the celebrated Empress--was a mere myth. Mr. Tsuda said that he possessed a recently published History of the Invasion of Korea, and offered to place the work at the disposal of any member who might feel inclined to undertake a translation of it. The meeting was then adjourned. T6kiy5, Feb. 14th, 1883. A General Meeting was held at the Chamber of Commerce, Tsukiji, TkiyS, on Wednesday, February 14th, the President, Sir H. S. Parkes, in the Chair. The Minutes...
